

IMPORTANT TAX NOTICE

April 11, 2023

Attention: U.S. Shareholders of XPAC Acquisition Corp.

Re: 2022 PFIC Status

This statement is provided for shareholders of XPAC Acquisition Corp. (the “Company”) who are United States persons for purposes of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). It is not relevant to other shareholders.

The Company has met the Internal Revenue Code definition of a passive foreign investment company (a “PFIC”) for the taxable year ending on December 31, 2022. Accordingly, the Company is hereby making available for its taxable year beginning on January 1, 2022 and ending on December 31, 2022 a PFIC Annual Information Statement within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1295-1(g)(1).

The PFIC Annual Information Statement contains information to enable you, should you choose, to elect to treat the Company as a qualified electing fund (a “QEF”).

In general, a U.S. shareholder who makes an election to treat the Company as a QEF (a “QEF Election”) is required annually to include in its income its pro rata share of the annual earnings and profits of the Company during taxable years when the Company is treated as a PFIC with respect to the U.S. shareholder. The QEF Election is made by completing Form 8621 in the manner required to make a QEF Election and attaching the Form 8621 to your federal income tax return filed by the due date of the return, including extensions.

U.S. shareholders are advised to consult with their tax advisors with respect to the 2022 PFIC Annual Information Statement and the process of making a QEF Election.

Further information on PFIC rules is available at the Internal Revenue Service website, including the following pages:
